

As a user of satellite radio I ask you to please not limit the channels that are presently being broadcasted. The weather and traffic information is a must and should be used to spur competition to the local channels